Employee Policy Handbook

HR | Leave | Expense and Travel | IT | Onboarding | Conduct

Version 2.0 - Effective 1 April 2025 - Internal use only

About This Handbook

Welcome to Zenith Corp. This handbook brings together the company's HR policies, leave policy, expense and travel reimbursement rules, IT and information security guidelines, onboarding manual and code of conduct into a single reference. It replaces all earlier versions and all separately circulated policy documents.

Zenith Corp is a mid-sized technology services company headquartered in Gurugram, with offices in Bengaluru, Pune, Hyderabad, Chennai, Mumbai, Noida, Kolkata, Ahmedabad and Kochi. The company employs approximately 1,800 people across engineering, sales, finance, human resources, operations and customer success.

The HR Helpdesk can be reached at hr-helpdesk@zenithcorp.example or on internal extension 2100, Monday to Friday, 9:30 AM to 6:30 PM IST. The IT Service Desk can be reached at itsupport@zenithcorp.example or on extension 4357 (HELP), 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

Chapter 1 - General HR Policy

1.1 Purpose

This General HR Policy sets out the principles, entitlements and procedures that apply to all employees of Zenith Corp in relation to general hr. It is intended to ensure fair, consistent and transparent treatment of every employee and to give managers a single reference point when making decisions. Where local law provides a more favourable entitlement, the local law will prevail.

1.2 Scope

This policy applies to all permanent full-time employees, permanent part-time employees (on a pro-rata basis unless stated otherwise) and fixed-term contract employees of Zenith Corp across all office locations in India. Interns, consultants and employees of third-party vendors are covered only where their contract explicitly refers to this policy.

1.3 Policy Owner

The owner of this policy is the Head of Human Resources. Questions about the interpretation of this policy should be raised first with the reporting manager and, if unresolved, with the policy owner. The policy owner is responsible for reviewing this policy at least once every twelve months.

1.4 Employment Categories

Zenith Corp employs people in the following categories:

- Permanent full-time: 40 hours per week, eligible for all benefits.
- Permanent part-time: 20 to 30 hours per week, benefits on a pro-rata basis.
- Fixed-term contract: engaged for a defined period of up to 24 months.
- Interns: engaged for 2 to 6 months; receive a monthly stipend, not a salary.

1.5 Employee Grades

Every role is mapped to one of eight grades. Grades determine travel entitlements, approval limits and certain allowances.

Grade	Typical titles	Band
G1	Associate, Trainee	Junior
G2	Senior Associate, Analyst	Junior
G3	Specialist, Engineer II	Mid
G4	Lead, Senior Engineer	Mid
G5	Manager, Principal Engineer	Senior
G6	Senior Manager, Architect	Senior
G7	Director	Leadership
G8	Vice President and above	Leadership

1.6 Probation Period

All new permanent employees serve a probation period of six months from their date of joining. The reporting manager may extend probation once, by up to three additional months, if performance or conduct expectations have not been met. The extension must be communicated in writing at least 15 days before the original probation end date.

During probation, the notice period on either side is 15 days. Earned leave accrues during probation but may only be used after probation is confirmed, except with the approval of the HR Business Partner.

1.7 Salary and Payroll

Salaries are paid monthly on the last working day of each month by direct bank transfer. Payslips are published on the Zenith People Portal by the 2nd working day of the following month. Payroll inputs (new joiners, leave without pay, reimbursements) must reach Payroll by the 20th of the month to be processed in that month's salary; inputs received later are processed in the following month.

Salary advances of up to one month's net salary may be granted once in a 12-month period in cases of medical emergency, recovered in up to six equal monthly instalments.

1.8 Benefits

- Group medical insurance of INR 5,00,000 per year covering the employee, spouse, up to two children and either parents or parents-in-law.
- Group term life insurance of three times annual fixed pay.
- Group personal accident insurance of INR 25,00,000.
- Annual health check-up for employees aged 30 and above.
- Employee Assistance Programme (EAP): free and confidential counselling, 24x7, on 1800-000-4321.
- Learning allowance of INR 25,000 per financial year for approved certifications and courses.

1.9 Employee Referral Programme

Employees who refer a candidate who is hired and completes 90 days of service are eligible for a referral bonus: INR 25,000 for roles in grades G1 to G3, INR 50,000 for grades G4 to G5, and INR 75,000 for grades G6 and above. Referrals must be submitted through the Careers section of the Zenith People Portal. HR team members and hiring managers for the role are not eligible for the bonus.

1.10 Grievance Redressal

Employees may raise a grievance with their reporting manager, their HR Business Partner, or confidentially by writing to grievance@zenithcorp.example. Every grievance is acknowledged within 2 working days and a resolution or status update is provided within 15 working days.

Complaints of sexual harassment are handled by the Internal Committee (IC) under the POSH Act, 2013, and can be raised at ic@zenithcorp.example.

1.11 Exceptions

Any exception to this policy must be approved in writing by the policy owner and the Chief People Officer. Exceptions are granted only in genuinely exceptional circumstances, are recorded in the employee's file, and do not set a precedent for future cases.

1.12 Non-Compliance

Failure to comply with this policy may lead to disciplinary action in line with the Zenith Corp Disciplinary Procedure (see the Code of Conduct chapter), up to and including termination of employment. Deliberate misuse of any entitlement under this policy is treated as misconduct.

1.13 Revision History

Version	Effective date	Summary of changes	Approved by
1.0	01-Apr-2022	Initial release	Head of Human Resources

Chapter 2 - Leave Policy

2.1 Purpose

This Leave Policy sets out the principles, entitlements and procedures that apply to all employees of Zenith Corp in relation to leave. It is intended to ensure fair, consistent and transparent treatment of every employee and to give managers a single reference point when making decisions. Where local law provides a more favourable entitlement, the local law will prevail.

2.2 Scope

This policy applies to all permanent full-time employees, permanent part-time employees (on a pro-rata basis unless stated otherwise) and fixed-term contract employees of Zenith Corp across all office locations in India. Interns, consultants and employees of third-party vendors are covered only where their contract explicitly refers to this policy.

2.3 Policy Owner

The owner of this policy is the Head of Human Resources. Questions about the interpretation of this policy should be raised first with the reporting manager and, if unresolved, with the policy owner. The policy owner is responsible for reviewing this policy at least once every twelve months.

2.4 Leave Year

The leave year runs from 1 January to 31 December. All leave is applied for and approved on the Zenith People Portal under Leave, then Apply Leave.

2.5 Summary of Leave Entitlements

Leave type	Entitlement per year	Carry forward	Encashable
Casual Leave (CL)	12 days	No	No
Sick Leave (SL)	10 days	Yes, up to 30 days total	No
Earned Leave (EL)	18 days (1.5 days per month)	Yes, up to 45 days total	Yes, on exit
Maternity Leave	26 weeks	-	-
Paternity Leave	10 working days	-	-
Bereavement Leave	5 working days per event	-	-
Marriage Leave	5 working days (once)	-	-
Optional Holidays	2 days from the list	No	No

2.6 Casual Leave

Every employee is entitled to 12 days of Casual Leave per calendar year, credited in full on 1 January. Employees who join during the year receive casual leave on a pro-rata basis of one day for each full month remaining in the year.

Casual leave is meant for short, unplanned personal needs. No more than 3 consecutive days of casual leave may be taken at a time. Casual leave cannot be combined with earned leave in the same continuous absence. Unused casual leave lapses on 31 December and cannot be carried forward or encashed.

Casual leave should be applied for at least one working day in advance where possible. In an emergency, the employee must inform the manager on the same day and apply on the portal within 2 working days of returning.

2.7 Sick Leave

Employees are entitled to 10 days of Sick Leave per year. Unused sick leave can be carried forward, subject to a maximum accumulated balance of 30 days.

A medical certificate from a registered medical practitioner is required for sick leave of more than 2 consecutive days. The certificate must be uploaded to the portal within 3 working days of returning to work.

2.8 Earned Leave

Earned leave (also called privilege leave) accrues at 1.5 days per completed month of service, i.e. 18 days per year. It is intended for planned vacations and must be applied for at least 7 days in advance for absences of 3 days or more.

Up to 45 days of earned leave may be accumulated. Any balance above 45 days on 31 December lapses. Accumulated earned leave (up to 45 days) is encashed at the time of separation at the rate of the last drawn basic salary.

2.9 Maternity Leave

Female employees are entitled to 26 weeks of paid maternity leave for the first two children, of which up to 8 weeks may be taken before the expected date of delivery. For the third child onwards, maternity leave is 12 weeks. Employees adopting a child below the age of three months, and commissioning mothers, are entitled to 12 weeks.

After maternity leave, employees may request to work from home for up to 3 months, subject to the nature of the role and manager approval.

2.10 Paternity Leave

Male employees are entitled to 10 working days of paid paternity leave, to be taken within 3 months of the birth or adoption of a child.

2.11 Bereavement Leave

Employees may take up to 5 working days of paid bereavement leave on the death of an immediate family member (spouse, child, parent, sibling, parent-in-law or grandparent).

2.12 Leave Without Pay

Leave without pay (LWP) may be granted only after all applicable paid leave has been exhausted, for up to 30 days in a calendar year, with the approval of the reporting manager and the HR Business Partner. Unapproved absence is treated as LWP and may lead to disciplinary action.

2.13 Public Holidays

Zenith Corp observes 10 fixed public holidays per year, plus 2 optional holidays that each employee may choose from the published list. Office-specific holiday calendars are published in December for the following year (see Annexure B).

2.14 How to Apply for Leave

- 1 Log in to the Zenith People Portal.
- 2 Go to Leave, then Apply Leave, and choose the leave type and dates.
- 3 Add a short reason and attach documents where required (e.g. medical certificate).
- 4 Submit. Your reporting manager receives an email and a portal notification.
- 5 The manager must approve or reject within 2 working days. Requests not acted on within 2 working days are escalated automatically to the skip-level manager.

2.15 Exceptions

Any exception to this policy must be approved in writing by the policy owner and the Chief People Officer. Exceptions are granted only in genuinely exceptional circumstances, are recorded in the employee's file, and do not set a precedent for future cases.

2.16 Non-Compliance

Failure to comply with this policy may lead to disciplinary action in line with the Zenith Corp Disciplinary Procedure (see the Code of Conduct chapter), up to and including termination of employment. Deliberate misuse of any entitlement under this policy is treated as misconduct.

Chapter 3 - Working Hours, Attendance and Work From Home

3.1 Purpose

This Working Hours and Remote Work Policy sets out the principles, entitlements and procedures that apply to all employees of Zenith Corp in relation to working hours and remote work. It is intended to ensure fair, consistent and transparent treatment of every employee and to give managers a single reference point when making decisions. Where local law provides a more favourable entitlement, the local law will prevail.

3.2 Scope

This policy applies to all permanent full-time employees, permanent part-time employees (on a pro-rata basis unless stated otherwise) and fixed-term contract employees of Zenith Corp across all office locations in India. Interns, consultants and employees of third-party vendors are covered only where their contract explicitly refers to this policy.

3.3 Policy Owner

The owner of this policy is the Head of Human Resources. Questions about the interpretation of this policy should be raised first with the reporting manager and, if unresolved, with the policy owner. The policy owner is responsible for reviewing this policy at least once every twelve months.

3.4 Standard Working Hours

The standard work week is Monday to Friday, 40 hours per week. Core collaboration hours are 11:00 AM to 4:00 PM IST, during which all employees are expected to be available. Outside core hours, employees may flex their start and end times with their manager's agreement.

3.5 Hybrid Work Model

Zenith Corp follows a hybrid model: employees work from the office a minimum of 3 days per week (Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday are the anchor days) and may work from home on the remaining days. Teams may agree on different anchor days with the approval of their department head.

Employees may additionally request up to 12 days of full remote work per year (for example, while visiting family) through the portal under Attendance, then Remote Work Request, at least 5 working days in advance.

3.6 Home Office Setup

Employees receive a one-time home office allowance of INR 15,000 in their first year for a chair, desk or other ergonomic equipment, reimbursed against bills through the expense portal. A monthly internet allowance of INR 1,000 is paid with salary.

3.7 Attendance

Office attendance is recorded by badge swipe. Employees who forget their badge must record attendance at the reception desk. Regularisation requests for missed swipes must be raised within 5 working days on the portal.

3.8 Overtime and Compensatory Off

Employees in grades G1 to G3 who are asked to work on a weekend or public holiday are entitled to one day of compensatory off for each such day, to be availed within 60 days. Compensatory off requires prior written approval of the manager for the weekend work.

3.9 Exceptions

Any exception to this policy must be approved in writing by the policy owner and the Chief People Officer. Exceptions are granted only in genuinely exceptional circumstances, are recorded in the employee's file, and do not set a precedent for future cases.

3.10 Non-Compliance

Failure to comply with this policy may lead to disciplinary action in line with the Zenith Corp Disciplinary Procedure (see the Code of Conduct chapter), up to and including termination of employment. Deliberate misuse of any entitlement under this policy is treated as misconduct.

Chapter 4 - Expense Reimbursement Policy

4.1 Purpose

This Expense Reimbursement Policy sets out the principles, entitlements and procedures that apply to all employees of Zenith Corp in relation to expense reimbursement. It is intended to ensure fair, consistent and transparent treatment of every employee and to give managers a single reference point when making decisions. Where local law provides a more favourable entitlement, the local law will prevail.

4.2 Scope

This policy applies to all permanent full-time employees, permanent part-time employees (on a pro-rata basis unless stated otherwise) and fixed-term contract employees of Zenith Corp across all office locations in India. Interns, consultants and employees of third-party vendors are covered only where their contract explicitly refers to this policy.

4.3 Policy Owner

The owner of this policy is the Chief Financial Officer. Questions about the interpretation of this policy should be raised first with the reporting manager and, if unresolved, with the policy owner. The policy owner is responsible for reviewing this policy at least once every twelve months.

4.4 General Principles

Zenith Corp reimburses reasonable, necessary and actual expenses incurred by employees wholly for business purposes. Employees are expected to spend company money as carefully as they would spend their own.

4.5 The Zenith Expense Portal (ZEP)

All reimbursement claims must be submitted through the Zenith Expense Portal (ZEP), accessible from the Zenith People Portal home page. Paper and email claims are not accepted.

4.6 Submission Deadline

Claims must be submitted within 30 days of the date the expense was incurred (or within 30 days of returning from a trip). Claims submitted between 31 and 60 days require additional approval from the department head. Claims older than 60 days are not reimbursed.

4.7 Receipts

An original itemised receipt or tax invoice is required for every expense of INR 500 or more. For expenses below INR 500 where no receipt is available, a self-declaration may be submitted, subject to a maximum of INR 2,000 per month in self-declared expenses. Company GST details (printed on the ZEP home page) should be provided to vendors where possible so that the company can claim input tax credit.

4.8 Approval Workflow

- 1 Employee submits the claim with receipts on ZEP.
- 2 Reporting manager approves within 5 working days.

- 3 Finance team audits the claim within 5 working days of manager approval.
- 4 Approved claims are paid to the employee's salary account within 10 working days of Finance approval, in the next weekly payment run (every Friday).

Claims above INR 50,000 also require approval from the department head.

4.9 Reimbursable Expenses

- Business travel, accommodation and meals as per the Travel Policy (Chapter 5).
- Local conveyance for client meetings (taxi, auto, metro, or own vehicle at INR 12 per km for a car and INR 5 per km for a two-wheeler).
- Client entertainment, with prior approval, up to INR 3,000 per person.
- Mobile phone bills up to INR 1,500 per month for grades G4 and above, and for sales roles.
- Approved training and certification fees within the learning allowance.
- Home office allowance as described in Chapter 3.

4.10 Non-Reimbursable Expenses

- Alcohol, except during approved client entertainment.
- Traffic fines, parking violations and penalties of any kind.
- Personal entertainment, such as in-room movies, spa or minibar.
- Laundry for trips shorter than 4 nights.
- Upgrades to travel class not permitted by the Travel Policy.
- Loss of personal belongings, and expenses of accompanying family members.

4.11 Corporate Credit Card

Employees in grades G5 and above, and employees who travel more than 6 times a year, may apply for a Zenith corporate credit card. Card statements must be reconciled on ZEP by the 10th of each month. Personal use of the corporate card is strictly prohibited.

4.12 Exceptions

Any exception to this policy must be approved in writing by the policy owner and the Chief People Officer. Exceptions are granted only in genuinely exceptional circumstances, are recorded in the employee's file, and do not set a precedent for future cases.

4.13 Non-Compliance

Failure to comply with this policy may lead to disciplinary action in line with the Zenith Corp Disciplinary Procedure (see the Code of Conduct chapter), up to and including termination of employment. Deliberate misuse of any entitlement under this policy is treated as misconduct.

Chapter 5 - Travel Policy

5.1 Purpose

This Travel Policy sets out the principles, entitlements and procedures that apply to all employees of Zenith Corp in relation to travel. It is intended to ensure fair, consistent and transparent treatment of every employee and to give managers a single reference point when making decisions. Where local law provides a more favourable entitlement, the local law will prevail.

5.2 Scope

This policy applies to all permanent full-time employees, permanent part-time employees (on a pro-rata basis unless stated otherwise) and fixed-term contract employees of Zenith Corp across all office locations in India. Interns, consultants and employees of third-party vendors are covered only where their contract explicitly refers to this policy.

5.3 Policy Owner

The owner of this policy is the Chief Financial Officer. Questions about the interpretation of this policy should be raised first with the reporting manager and, if unresolved, with the policy owner. The policy owner is responsible for reviewing this policy at least once every twelve months.

5.4 Travel Requests

All business travel must be approved in advance through a Travel Request on ZEP. Domestic travel requests should be raised at least 7 days before travel and international travel at least 21 days before travel. Bookings are made by the company's travel desk (travel@zenithcorp.example) after approval.

5.5 Mode and Class of Travel

Grade	Air (domestic)	Train	International air
G1 - G3	Economy	AC 3-tier	Economy
G4 - G5	Economy	AC 2-tier	Economy (Premium Economy over 8 hrs)
G6 - G7	Economy (Premium on request)	AC 1st class	Premium Economy
G8	Business	AC 1st class	Business

Air travel is permitted where the train journey would exceed 8 hours.

5.6 Accommodation

Employees should stay at company-empanelled hotels where available. Accommodation limits per night by city tier and grade are given in Annexure A.

5.7 Daily Allowance (Per Diem)

A daily allowance covers meals and incidental expenses on business trips. It is paid without receipts at the rates in Annexure A. Where meals are provided by the host or hotel, the daily allowance is reduced by 25% per provided meal.

5.8 How to Claim Travel Reimbursement

- 1 Ensure your Travel Request was approved on ZEP before the trip.
- 2 Within 30 days of returning, open ZEP and choose New Claim, then Travel.
- 3 Link the claim to the approved Travel Request number.
- 4 Add each expense line (hotel, local taxi, meals if not claiming per diem) and upload receipts for items of INR 500 or more.
- 5 Submit. The claim follows the approval workflow in Chapter 4 and is paid within 10 working days of Finance approval.

5.9 Travel Advance

A travel advance of up to 75% of the estimated trip cost may be requested on ZEP. Advances must be settled within 15 days of returning; unsettled advances are recovered from salary.

5.10 Safety and Insurance

All employees on business travel are covered by the company's travel insurance. For international travel, employees must register their itinerary with the travel desk and save the 24x7 travel assistance number, +91-124-000-9911.

5.11 Exceptions

Any exception to this policy must be approved in writing by the policy owner and the Chief People Officer. Exceptions are granted only in genuinely exceptional circumstances, are recorded in the employee's file, and do not set a precedent for future cases.

5.12 Non-Compliance

Failure to comply with this policy may lead to disciplinary action in line with the Zenith Corp Disciplinary Procedure (see the Code of Conduct chapter), up to and including termination of employment. Deliberate misuse of any entitlement under this policy is treated as misconduct.

Chapter 6 - IT Usage and Information Security Guidelines

6.1 Purpose

This IT and Information Security Policy sets out the principles, entitlements and procedures that apply to all employees of Zenith Corp in relation to it and information security. It is intended to ensure fair, consistent and transparent treatment of every employee and to give managers a single reference point when making decisions. Where local law provides a more favourable entitlement, the local law will prevail.

6.2 Scope

This policy applies to all permanent full-time employees, permanent part-time employees (on a pro-rata basis unless stated otherwise) and fixed-term contract employees of Zenith Corp across all office locations in India. Interns, consultants and employees of third-party vendors are covered only where their contract explicitly refers to this policy.

6.3 Policy Owner

The owner of this policy is the Chief Information Security Officer. Questions about the interpretation of this policy should be raised first with the reporting manager and, if unresolved, with the policy owner. The policy owner is responsible for reviewing this policy at least once every twelve months.

6.4 Acceptable Use

Company devices, networks and accounts are provided for business use. Limited personal use is permitted if it does not interfere with work, consume excessive resources or breach any law or company policy. Installing unapproved software is not permitted; approved software is available in the Zenith Software Center application.

6.5 Passwords and Authentication

- Passwords must be at least 12 characters long and include upper-case, lower-case, a number and a special character.
- Passwords must be changed every 90 days; the last 10 passwords cannot be reused.
- Accounts are locked after 5 failed login attempts and unlock automatically after 30 minutes, or immediately through the IT Service Desk.
- Multi-factor authentication (MFA) through the Zenith Authenticator app is mandatory for email, VPN and all business applications.
- Passwords must never be shared, including with IT staff.

6.6 Laptops and Devices

Every employee is issued a company laptop on day one. Laptops are encrypted, managed centrally and must be kept updated; security updates are installed automatically and the laptop must be restarted within 3 days of an update prompt.

A lost or stolen laptop must be reported to the IT Service Desk within 2 hours and to the police within 24 hours; a copy of the police report must be sent to IT. The employee may be asked to bear 25% of the depreciated value of the device if loss results from negligence.

Hardware is refreshed every 4 years. Requests for additional hardware (monitor, keyboard, headset) are raised on the IT portal under Request Hardware.

6.7 VPN and Remote Access

When working outside the office, employees must connect through the Zenith VPN (GlobalConnect client) to access internal systems. Public Wi-Fi may be used only when connected to the VPN.

6.8 Email and Communication

Company email must not be auto-forwarded to personal accounts. Confidential information must be shared only through company-approved tools (Zenith Mail, Zenith Drive, and the company chat workspace). Employees must not use personal messaging apps for sharing customer data.

6.9 Data Classification

Class	Examples	Handling
Public	Marketing material, website content	No restrictions
Internal	Policies, org charts, internal announcements	Share only within Zenith
Confidential	Customer data, financials, contracts	Need-to-know; encrypt in transit
Restricted	Salary data, source code, security keys	Named access only; no external sharing

6.10 Reporting Security Incidents

Suspected phishing emails must be reported with the Report Phishing button in Zenith Mail. Any other security incident (malware, data leak, suspicious access) must be reported to security@zenithcorp.example or extension 4357 within 1 hour of discovery. Employees will not be penalised for reporting in good faith.

6.11 Getting IT Help

Raise a ticket on the IT portal (it.zenithcorp.example) or call extension 4357. Ticket priorities and target resolution times are: P1 (business down) 4 hours; P2 (major impact) 1 working day; P3 (minor issue) 3 working days; P4 (request) 5 working days.

6.12 Exceptions

Any exception to this policy must be approved in writing by the policy owner and the Chief People Officer. Exceptions are granted only in genuinely exceptional circumstances, are recorded in the employee's file, and do not set a precedent for future cases.

6.13 Non-Compliance

Failure to comply with this policy may lead to disciplinary action in line with the Zenith Corp Disciplinary Procedure (see the Code of Conduct chapter), up to and including termination of employment. Deliberate misuse of any entitlement under this policy is treated as misconduct.

6.14 Revision History

Chapter 7 - Onboarding Manual

7.1 Purpose

This Onboarding Manual sets out the principles, entitlements and procedures that apply to all employees of Zenith Corp in relation to onboarding manual. It is intended to ensure fair, consistent and transparent treatment of every employee and to give managers a single reference point when making decisions. Where local law provides a more favourable entitlement, the local law will prevail.

7.2 Scope

This policy applies to all permanent full-time employees, permanent part-time employees (on a pro-rata basis unless stated otherwise) and fixed-term contract employees of Zenith Corp across all office locations in India. Interns, consultants and employees of third-party vendors are covered only where their contract explicitly refers to this policy.

7.3 Policy Owner

The owner of this policy is the Head of Talent and Onboarding. Questions about the interpretation of this policy should be raised first with the reporting manager and, if unresolved, with the policy owner. The policy owner is responsible for reviewing this policy at least once every twelve months.

7.4 Before Day One

After accepting the offer, new joiners receive a link to the Zenith Pre-boarding Portal, where they must upload the following at least 7 days before joining: identity proof, address proof, PAN card, educational certificates, relieving letters from previous employers, a passport-size photograph and bank account details.

7.5 Day One

- 1 Report to the office reception at 9:30 AM with a government photo ID.
- 2 Collect your access badge and laptop from the IT and Facilities desk.
- 3 Attend the Welcome Induction (9:45 AM to 1:00 PM) run by HR.
- 4 Lunch with your manager and assigned onboarding buddy.
- 5 Afternoon: IT setup session, MFA enrolment and email activation.

7.6 Onboarding Buddy

Each new joiner is paired with an onboarding buddy from the same team for the first 90 days. The buddy helps with informal questions, introductions and settling in, and meets the new joiner at least once a week during the first month.

7.7 Mandatory Trainings

The following e-learning modules on the Zenith Learning Hub must be completed within the first 30 days:

- Code of Conduct and Ethics
- Information Security Awareness

- Prevention of Sexual Harassment (POSH)
- Data Privacy Essentials
- Anti-Bribery and Anti-Corruption

Failure to complete mandatory training within 30 days may delay probation confirmation.

7.8 30-60-90 Day Plan

Within the first week, the manager and new joiner agree on a 30-60-90 day plan: learning goals for the first 30 days, first contributions by day 60, and independent ownership of defined work by day 90. Check-ins are held at the end of each 30-day period.

7.9 Probation Review

A formal probation review is held in the fifth month of employment. The manager records a recommendation (confirm, extend or not confirm) on the portal, and HR issues a confirmation letter by the end of the sixth month.

7.10 Exceptions

Any exception to this policy must be approved in writing by the policy owner and the Chief People Officer. Exceptions are granted only in genuinely exceptional circumstances, are recorded in the employee's file, and do not set a precedent for future cases.

7.11 Non-Compliance

Failure to comply with this policy may lead to disciplinary action in line with the Zenith Corp Disciplinary Procedure (see the Code of Conduct chapter), up to and including termination of employment. Deliberate misuse of any entitlement under this policy is treated as misconduct.

Chapter 8 - Performance Management

8.1 Purpose

This Performance Management Policy sets out the principles, entitlements and procedures that apply to all employees of Zenith Corp in relation to performance management. It is intended to ensure fair, consistent and transparent treatment of every employee and to give managers a single reference point when making decisions. Where local law provides a more favourable entitlement, the local law will prevail.

8.2 Scope

This policy applies to all permanent full-time employees, permanent part-time employees (on a pro-rata basis unless stated otherwise) and fixed-term contract employees of Zenith Corp across all office locations in India. Interns, consultants and employees of third-party vendors are covered only where their contract explicitly refers to this policy.

8.3 Policy Owner

The owner of this policy is the Head of Human Resources. Questions about the interpretation of this policy should be raised first with the reporting manager and, if unresolved, with the policy owner. The policy owner is responsible for reviewing this policy at least once every twelve months.

8.4 Performance Cycle

Zenith Corp runs an annual performance cycle aligned with the financial year (April to March), with a mid-year check-in in October and the annual review in April. Goals are set on the portal by 30 April each year.

8.5 Rating Scale

Rating	Label	Description
5	Exceptional	Consistently exceeds all expectations
4	Exceeds	Frequently exceeds expectations
3	Meets	Fully meets expectations
2	Partially meets	Meets some expectations; improvement needed
1	Does not meet	Does not meet expectations

8.6 Increments and Promotions

Salary increments are effective from 1 July each year. Promotions are considered twice a year, in April and October. Employees must have spent at least 18 months in their current grade to be eligible for promotion, unless rated 5 in the latest cycle.

8.7 Performance Improvement Plan

Employees rated 1, or rated 2 in two consecutive cycles, may be placed on a Performance Improvement Plan (PIP) of 60 days with clear goals and fortnightly reviews.

8.8 Exceptions

Any exception to this policy must be approved in writing by the policy owner and the Chief People Officer. Exceptions are granted only in genuinely exceptional circumstances, are recorded in the employee's file, and do not set a precedent for future cases.

8.9 Non-Compliance

Failure to comply with this policy may lead to disciplinary action in line with the Zenith Corp Disciplinary Procedure (see the Code of Conduct chapter), up to and including termination of employment. Deliberate misuse of any entitlement under this policy is treated as misconduct.

8.10 Revision History

Version	Effective date	Summary of changes	Approved by
1.0	01-Apr-2022	Initial release	Head of Human Resources
1.1	01-Apr-2023	Clarifications and process updates	Head of Human Resources
2.0	01-Apr-2025	Annual review; current version	Chief People Officer

Chapter 9 - Code of Conduct and Disciplinary Procedure

9.1 Purpose

This Code of Conduct sets out the principles, entitlements and procedures that apply to all employees of Zenith Corp in relation to code of conduct. It is intended to ensure fair, consistent and transparent treatment of every employee and to give managers a single reference point when making decisions. Where local law provides a more favourable entitlement, the local law will prevail.

9.2 Scope

This policy applies to all permanent full-time employees, permanent part-time employees (on a pro-rata basis unless stated otherwise) and fixed-term contract employees of Zenith Corp across all office locations in India. Interns, consultants and employees of third-party vendors are covered only where their contract explicitly refers to this policy.

9.3 Policy Owner

The owner of this policy is the Chief People Officer. Questions about the interpretation of this policy should be raised first with the reporting manager and, if unresolved, with the policy owner. The policy owner is responsible for reviewing this policy at least once every twelve months.

9.4 Core Expectations

- Act with integrity and honesty in all dealings.
- Treat colleagues, customers and partners with respect and dignity.
- Avoid conflicts of interest and declare any that arise.
- Protect company assets and confidential information.
- Comply with all applicable laws and company policies.

9.5 Gifts and Hospitality

Employees may accept gifts of nominal value (up to INR 2,000) from business partners. Gifts above this value must be declared to compliance@zenithcorp.example within 5 days and may need to be returned. Cash or cash equivalents must never be accepted.

9.6 Outside Employment

Employees must not take up any other paid employment or business activity without the prior written approval of HR. Unpaid community or academic activities are permitted if they do not conflict with Zenith's interests.

9.7 Whistleblower Policy

Concerns about fraud, bribery or unethical behaviour can be raised anonymously through the Ethics Hotline at ethics@zenithcorp.example or 1800-000-7788. Retaliation against a whistleblower is itself a serious disciplinary offence.

9.8 Disciplinary Procedure

- 1 Informal discussion with the manager for minor issues.
- 2 Written warning, recorded on file for 12 months.
- 3 Final written warning, recorded on file for 24 months.
- 4 Termination of employment.

Gross misconduct (for example fraud, violence, harassment or serious data breach) may lead to immediate suspension and termination without prior warnings, following an inquiry.

9.9 Exceptions

Any exception to this policy must be approved in writing by the policy owner and the Chief People Officer. Exceptions are granted only in genuinely exceptional circumstances, are recorded in the employee's file, and do not set a precedent for future cases.

9.10 Non-Compliance

Failure to comply with this policy may lead to disciplinary action in line with the Zenith Corp Disciplinary Procedure (see the Code of Conduct chapter), up to and including termination of employment. Deliberate misuse of any entitlement under this policy is treated as misconduct.

9.11 Revision History

Chapter 10 - Separation and Exit

10.1 Purpose

This Separation Policy sets out the principles, entitlements and procedures that apply to all employees of Zenith Corp in relation to separation. It is intended to ensure fair, consistent and transparent treatment of every employee and to give managers a single reference point when making decisions. Where local law provides a more favourable entitlement, the local law will prevail.

10.2 Scope

This policy applies to all permanent full-time employees, permanent part-time employees (on a pro-rata basis unless stated otherwise) and fixed-term contract employees of Zenith Corp across all office locations in India. Interns, consultants and employees of third-party vendors are covered only where their contract explicitly refers to this policy.

10.3 Policy Owner

The owner of this policy is the Head of Human Resources. Questions about the interpretation of this policy should be raised first with the reporting manager and, if unresolved, with the policy owner. The policy owner is responsible for reviewing this policy at least once every twelve months.

10.4 Notice Period

Status / Grade	Notice period
On probation (any grade)	15 days
Confirmed, G1 - G3	30 days
Confirmed, G4 - G6	60 days
Confirmed, G7 - G8	90 days

The notice period may be shortened by mutual agreement, or bought out against the unserved days of basic salary.

10.5 Resignation Process

Resignations are submitted on the portal under Separation, then Resign. The manager holds a conversation within 3 working days. Earned leave may not be used to adjust the notice period without the manager's approval.

10.6 Exit Clearance and Full and Final Settlement

The departing employee must return the laptop, access badge, corporate card and any other company property on the last working day. Full and final settlement, including earned leave encashment and pending reimbursements, is processed within 45 days of the last working day. The relieving letter and experience letter are issued along with the settlement.

10.7 Exceptions

Any exception to this policy must be approved in writing by the policy owner and the Chief People Officer. Exceptions are granted only in genuinely exceptional circumstances, are recorded in the employee's file, and do not set a precedent for future cases.

10.8 Non-Compliance

Failure to comply with this policy may lead to disciplinary action in line with the Zenith Corp Disciplinary Procedure (see the Code of Conduct chapter), up to and including termination of employment. Deliberate misuse of any entitlement under this policy is treated as misconduct.

Annexure K - Manager's Quick Guide

K.1 Purpose

This Manager Responsibilities Guide sets out the principles, entitlements and procedures that apply to all employees of Zenith Corp in relation to manager responsibilities guide. It is intended to ensure fair, consistent and transparent treatment of every employee and to give managers a single reference point when making decisions. Where local law provides a more favourable entitlement, the local law will prevail.

K.2 Scope

This policy applies to all permanent full-time employees, permanent part-time employees (on a pro-rata basis unless stated otherwise) and fixed-term contract employees of Zenith Corp across all office locations in India. Interns, consultants and employees of third-party vendors are covered only where their contract explicitly refers to this policy.

K.3 Policy Owner

The owner of this policy is the Head of Human Resources. Questions about the interpretation of this policy should be raised first with the reporting manager and, if unresolved, with the policy owner. The policy owner is responsible for reviewing this policy at least once every twelve months.

K.4 Approvals and Timelines

Request	Approver	Target time
Leave	Reporting manager	2 working days (auto-escalates)
Expense claim	Reporting manager	5 working days
Travel request	Reporting manager (+ dept head for international)	3 working days
Remote work request	Reporting manager	3 working days
Attendance regularisation	Reporting manager	3 working days
Probation recommendation	Reporting manager	By end of month 5

K.5 One-on-One Meetings

Managers are expected to hold a one-on-one meeting with each direct report at least once every two weeks, focused on priorities, blockers, wellbeing and development.

K.6 Handling Sensitive Situations

Managers must escalate any complaint of harassment to the IC and any suspected fraud to the Ethics Hotline, and must not investigate such matters themselves.

K.7 Team Budgets

Each team has an annual team-engagement budget of INR 2,500 per team member, for team lunches and offsites, claimed on ZEP with a list of attendees.

K.8 Exceptions

Any exception to this policy must be approved in writing by the policy owner and the Chief People Officer. Exceptions are granted only in genuinely exceptional circumstances, are recorded in the employee's file, and do not set a precedent for future cases.

K.9 Non-Compliance

Failure to comply with this policy may lead to disciplinary action in line with the Zenith Corp Disciplinary Procedure (see the Code of Conduct chapter), up to and including termination of employment. Deliberate misuse of any entitlement under this policy is treated as misconduct.

Supplementary Policy S1 - Medical Insurance and Claims

S1.1 Purpose

This Medical Insurance Policy sets out the principles, entitlements and procedures that apply to all employees of Zenith Corp in relation to medical insurance. It is intended to ensure fair, consistent and transparent treatment of every employee and to give managers a single reference point when making decisions. Where local law provides a more favourable entitlement, the local law will prevail.

S1.2 Scope

This policy applies to all permanent full-time employees, permanent part-time employees (on a pro-rata basis unless stated otherwise) and fixed-term contract employees of Zenith Corp across all office locations in India. Interns, consultants and employees of third-party vendors are covered only where their contract explicitly refers to this policy.

S1.3 Policy Owner

The owner of this policy is the Head of Total Rewards. Questions about the interpretation of this policy should be raised first with the reporting manager and, if unresolved, with the policy owner. The policy owner is responsible for reviewing this policy at least once every twelve months.

S1.4 Coverage

The group medical policy provides a family floater cover of INR 5,00,000 per year. Employees may buy a top-up of INR 5,00,000 or INR 10,00,000 at group rates, deducted from salary, during the enrolment window in April.

- Maternity benefit: up to INR 75,000 for normal delivery and INR 1,00,000 for caesarean.
- Pre-existing diseases covered from day one.
- Room rent capped at 1% of sum insured per day for a normal room and 2% for ICU.
- Pre-hospitalisation 30 days and post-hospitalisation 60 days.
- Parents cover carries a 20% co-payment.

S1.5 Cashless Claims

- 1 Choose a network hospital from the insurer's list on the intranet.
- 2 Show your e-card at the hospital insurance desk.
- 3 For planned admission, request pre-authorisation 48 hours in advance.
- 4 For emergencies, the hospital must inform the insurer within 24 hours of admission.

S1.6 Reimbursement Claims

For treatment at non-network hospitals, submit original bills, discharge summary and reports to the insurer's claims portal within 30 days of discharge. Claims are settled within 30 days of receiving complete documents.

S1.7 Enrolling Dependants

New dependants (spouse after marriage, newborn child) must be added within 30 days of the event through the Zenith People Portal under Benefits. Outside this window, dependants can be added only at the April enrolment.

S1.8 Exceptions

Any exception to this policy must be approved in writing by the policy owner and the Chief People Officer. Exceptions are granted only in genuinely exceptional circumstances, are recorded in the employee's file, and do not set a precedent for future cases.

S1.9 Non-Compliance

Failure to comply with this policy may lead to disciplinary action in line with the Zenith Corp Disciplinary Procedure (see the Code of Conduct chapter), up to and including termination of employment. Deliberate misuse of any entitlement under this policy is treated as misconduct.

Supplementary Policy S7 - Prevention of Sexual Harassment (POSH)

S7.1 Purpose

This POSH Policy sets out the principles, entitlements and procedures that apply to all employees of Zenith Corp in relation to posh. It is intended to ensure fair, consistent and transparent treatment of every employee and to give managers a single reference point when making decisions. Where local law provides a more favourable entitlement, the local law will prevail.

S7.2 Scope

This policy applies to all permanent full-time employees, permanent part-time employees (on a pro-rata basis unless stated otherwise) and fixed-term contract employees of Zenith Corp across all office locations in India. Interns, consultants and employees of third-party vendors are covered only where their contract explicitly refers to this policy.

S7.3 Policy Owner

The owner of this policy is the Presiding Officer, Internal Committee. Questions about the interpretation of this policy should be raised first with the reporting manager and, if unresolved, with the policy owner. The policy owner is responsible for reviewing this policy at least once every twelve months.

S7.4 Internal Committee

Each office has an Internal Committee (IC) with a woman Presiding Officer, at least two employee members and one external member, as required by the POSH Act, 2013.

S7.5 Filing a Complaint

A written complaint may be submitted to ic@zenithcorp.example within 3 months of the incident (extendable by a further 3 months for valid reasons). The IC completes its inquiry within 90 days.

S7.6 Confidentiality and Non-Retaliation

The identity of the complainant, respondent and witnesses is kept confidential. Retaliation against anyone who files a complaint or participates in an inquiry is misconduct.

S7.7 Exceptions

Any exception to this policy must be approved in writing by the policy owner and the Chief People Officer. Exceptions are granted only in genuinely exceptional circumstances, are recorded in the employee's file, and do not set a precedent for future cases.

S7.8 Non-Compliance

Failure to comply with this policy may lead to disciplinary action in line with the Zenith Corp Disciplinary Procedure (see the Code of Conduct chapter), up to and including termination of employment. Deliberate misuse of any entitlement under this policy is treated as misconduct.

Supplementary Policy S8 - Social Media

S8.1 Purpose

This Social Media Policy sets out the principles, entitlements and procedures that apply to all employees of Zenith Corp in relation to social media. It is intended to ensure fair, consistent and transparent treatment of every employee and to give managers a single reference point when making decisions. Where local law provides a more favourable entitlement, the local law will prevail.

S8.2 Scope

This policy applies to all permanent full-time employees, permanent part-time employees (on a pro-rata basis unless stated otherwise) and fixed-term contract employees of Zenith Corp across all office locations in India. Interns, consultants and employees of third-party vendors are covered only where their contract explicitly refers to this policy.

S8.3 Policy Owner

The owner of this policy is the Head of Corporate Communications. Questions about the interpretation of this policy should be raised first with the reporting manager and, if unresolved, with the policy owner. The policy owner is responsible for reviewing this policy at least once every twelve months.

S8.4 Personal Accounts

Employees may mention that they work at Zenith Corp on personal social media but must make clear that views are their own. Confidential information, customer names and unreleased product details must never be posted.

S8.5 Speaking for the Company

Only authorised spokespersons from Corporate Communications may speak on behalf of Zenith Corp. Media enquiries must be forwarded to media@zenithcorp.example within the same working day.

S8.6 Exceptions

Any exception to this policy must be approved in writing by the policy owner and the Chief People Officer. Exceptions are granted only in genuinely exceptional circumstances, are recorded in the employee's file, and do not set a precedent for future cases.

S8.7 Non-Compliance

Failure to comply with this policy may lead to disciplinary action in line with the Zenith Corp Disciplinary Procedure (see the Code of Conduct chapter), up to and including termination of employment. Deliberate misuse of any entitlement under this policy is treated as misconduct.
